SUBJECT: EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH – FEBRUARY 2021

I am pleased to acknowledge the selection of Deputy Sheriff Cassandra Wisniewski as Employee of the Month for February 2021.

Supervisors state that, since joining the Sheriff's Office in May 2019, Deputy Wisniewski has quickly acclimated herself to the comprehensive duties of the Family and Juvenile Court Divisions. During this short period of time, Deputy Wisniewski has developed into a dependable asset and contributor to daily court operations. Supervisors appreciate the exceptional work ethic, punctuality and proficiency she displays, comparing her performance to that of veteran members of our workforce.

Primarily assigned to courtroom, desk and Domestic Relations Officer security duties, Deputy Wisniewski is also always willing to complete varied, additional tasks, as assigned by her supervisors. Deputy Wisniewski has exhibited versatility, being easily able to perform new jobs, such as overseeing security functions in the Protection From Abuse (PFA) Office. Matters involving PFAs are contentious by nature. Deputy Wisniewski has proven herself capable of handling any incident that may arise, taking decisive action to quickly defuse volatile situations. Last month, when assigned to the PFA Office, Deputy Wisniewski encountered a combative individual who refused to comply with PFA operations. As the individual's behavior became increasingly disorderly, Deputy Wisniewski and fellow Deputy Sheriffs apprehended the actor. Deputy Wisniewski subsequently charged the individual with defiant trespass, harassment and disorderly conduct.

As a former Pittsburgh Police Officer, Deputy Wisniewski is a reliable source for job-related and law enforcement information. Supervisors appreciate Deputy Wisniewski's eagerness to help guide and share job-related knowledge with newer Deputies. Deputy Wisniewski's calm, pleasant and professional demeanor, coupled with the everyday initiative she takes in her duties reflects positively on the Sheriff's Office and contributes to a productive work environment.

In recognition of her work, Deputy Wisniewski will be granted one full day off work, as long as no overtime is incurred. Please join me in congratulating Deputy Wisniewski on a job well done!
